

Woman's Club Abandons Queen Contest

During the past several years, the Junior Woman's Club of Torrance has sponsored the Torrance Queen Contest. It was granted exclusive rights to the project by the Chamber of Commerce. The proceeds from this event have helped finance the construction of the YWCA building being dedicated today. Since the building is now completed the club has no further need for the contest.

The Torrance Youth Band has made a bid to the Woman's Club for the contest rights, for use in conjunction with their Spring Band Festival.

After much discussion by the club, it was decided that the contest rights would be relinquished to the Chamber of Commerce to be used as they saw fit.

Supermarkets Owe Much to Theo Cummings

Southern California's colossal supermarkets which have revolutionized the retail food field owe much to Theodore Cummings, who 20 years ago, entered the business as a checker. He is now president and operator of a group of market chains.

He operates the Market Town stores and more recently has opened a Food Giant store in Lynwood.

During his career, Cummings has opened and operated markets in Arcadia, Artesia, Long Beach, Hawthorne, Gardena and Pasadena.

He is married and the father of two daughters.

Board to Study Charity Appeals In the Schools

Where do you draw the line on charity appeals within the schools? There was a serious question in the mind of Board of Education members at the last meeting when Mrs. Clara Conner, Postmaster, through J. H. Hull requested that "March of Dimes" cards be passed out to children in the schools.

However, the Board unanimously approved the request. All members were agreed that the problem of how many charities youngsters should be asked to support would be studied at a future meeting.

"I realize that the March of Dimes is certainly a valuable cause," said Superintendent J. H. Hull. "Somehow, I hate to nickle and dime parents to death. I really do. I don't know what the answer is."

"It seems to me that every day another charity is added to burden youngsters," said Board President John A. Shidler. "The children are troubled enough with notes, remembering school lunch money, and hundreds of other complicated matters. I wish we wouldn't have to add extras like this to their program."

Board member Grace Wright pointed out that participating in charities is part of school living and that she felt it was worthwhile.

Board member Rollin Smith jokingly said: "I don't know where to draw the line. I feel the YMCA should be in on it too."

"Chances are we'll keep on permitting the March of Dimes collections," said Shidler, "unless we hear protests from someone."

Board member Bill Tolson made the motion to permit the collections. He also felt that the matter should be given more study in the future.
